

Irchester Community Primary School

Vacancy for a school librarian

Do you want to share your love and passion for books and reading?

“The books transported her into new worlds and introduced her to amazing people who lived exciting lives” Roald Dahl ‘Matilda’

This is a wonderful opportunity for someone with a love of books and reading to ignite a passion for reading in our children. Our well stocked large library is the centre of our school and means a lot to the school community, especially the children.

What we need from you is

- Ability to create an atmosphere where children are inspired to read and immerse themselves in the magic places and adventures that stories and books can take them.
- Ability to create and maintain an ordered system with efficient working practices to ensure a smooth-running library.
- Enthusiasm for books and the ability to inspire children, helping them to choose and book out their books daily.
- Have a couple of hours to spare each day.
- To smile on the crazy days and enjoy the good ones too
